The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

It is a well known fact that all youngsters between the ages of 8 and 12 spend the greatest share of their time trying to convince their parents that they (the parents) are very unnecessary people. One of these frustrated fathers was telling us the other day that having reached the end of all endurance he told his ten year old "Okay, if you enjoy the neighbors so much, why don't you just live with 'em?" "I asked 'em," was the reply, "but they just don't have the room."

Speaking of kids, Cecil Hardestry tells us that we hear lots of talk of the Recent Period of Rapid School Growth and that soon we should ge back to normal. The truth is, this rapid growth is normal and that 1954 will be California's biggest baby crop. No, we must continue to prepare for an ever increasing population. Like it or not!

—ML—

We read considerable these days of one S. D. official or another talking about L. G. needing a new Fire House. Tom Parsons, Paul Tilton and yours truly as fire commissioners think we need a new station about as much as another hole in the head. We have budgeted a reserve fund this year of some $5,000.00 for an addition to the station, but we don't plan to use even that until we see what happens to incorporation.

Whether we incorporate or not, the money will be available for an enlarged building which the commission feels will fill our needs for years to come. What the city of San Diego plans to build for $68,000.00 must include a palm lined swimming pool in addition to a sufficiently large $5,000 expansion.

Chan Mason is Chairman of the Board of the Lemon Grove Fire District, and under his guidance, the fire insurance rate has dropped to an all-time low of 37½ cents.

We're right proud of our Fire Department and the Pacific Board of Fire Underwriters can't think too badly of us as we have a better insurance rating than certain parts of the city of S. D. which has been organized for about 75 years. Incidentally Chief Courser of S. D. at a recent Chief's Convention introduced Pappy Hensley as having the best Fire Department in S. D. County. HA! Including the City too, Chief?

Did you ever stop to consider the sentiment and true sincerity that is behind those birthday greeting cards you receive from your life insurance company, wishing you many, many happy birthdays?

OUCH!

We bought a chance on a 500 pound steer from a pretty little gal named Jenine Patrick. Jenine is a member of The Tumbleweeds, a local junior equestrian group. Now we find out her pappy is none other than the Patrick who clobbered S. D. Padre pitching with two homers the other night, which just about sounded the death knell to Padre hopes. The guy also pitched scoreless ball for several innings. We wuz robbed, tricked and skulldugged!

How Another Editor Views Lemon Grove

Once in a while an outstanding piece of material appears in some publication other than the REVIEW.

Not being jealous of our prerogatives, we not only reprint these items from time to time, but we also give full credit to the editor and the publication in which it was published.

Such an item is Rev. Dan Apra's view of the Lemon Grove community through the eyes of his weekly publication, THE LAMPLIGHTER.

In a column which he writes, labeled "APRA-POS" the reverend writes:

All of us want Lemon Grove to stay just the way it is; actually I would like Lemon Grove to go back to being the way it was when I came here six years ago. It's perfectly all right to dream if we don't allow life to slip by while we are dreaming.

The fact remains that Lemon Grove is not going to stay the way it is. It is changing very, very rapidly.

Just this past week we received word that two more taverns will come to Lemon Grove.

Also last week two teen age boys tried to break into Friendship Hall and were molesting Mrs. Ludlow. When she called the sheriff he informed her that he was too busy to come out.

Lemon Grove in changing; it can change for better or for worse. Let's band ourselves together so that we can direct the future of our community.

Anti-Clotting Drugs Good News for Heart Victims

Good news for people in Lemon Grove who have suffered recent heart attacks was received today by the San Diego County Heart Association. Findings of a committee appointed by the American Heart Association, working over a two year period, in cooperation with 16 hospitals, have found anti-blood clotting drugs very effective in reducing the death rate from heart attacks.

According to Dr. W. C. Cooke, a director of the San Diego County Heart Association, "Heart attacks, the leading cause of death in the United States, occur most

An Editorial on Incorporation

Most thinking people in Lemon Grove will join together to resist the plan the city of San Diego offers for annexing this community under the terms of a report handed to the San Diego city council last week.

Hardest part to take is the definition of boundaries by which the community would be split at the drainage divide which runs approximately along Grove and Kempf St. and over the hill toward Golden Ave.

That may not be important to those included in the proposed city limits, but a high percentage of our community residents toward the east would be relegated to the hapless condition of governmental impotency, a condition which the proponents of incorporation are attempting to escape.

The city report is not altogether a fair one. When it referred to 17 additional police officers as the result of Lemon Grove annexation, it failed to point out that most of these men would be used elsewhere. Lemon Grove only points up a long time need for police reshuffling and the additional men would be spread throughout the San Diego districts.

Nor is their evaluation of our Fire District correct. Present facilities were planned with an eye toward future expansion. A $5,000 addition to eventually be made will take care of this community for years to come. San Diego's claim that $68,000 worth of equipment and buildings would have to be added does not check out with the State Fire Underwriters viewpoint which gives Lemon Grove the highest efficiency rating possible, and gives residents the lowest

The Review will commence a series of articles on local government next week. These will be designed to answer all the questions that may come to the reader's mind. The Review will also answer any written question concerning incorporation-annexation-status quo.

($3.75) fire rate. One lower rate is possible but that will come only when more fire hydrants are installed. The community pays for the hydrants, annexed or not.

As an annexed part of San Diego, Lemon Grove would be immediately eligible for a city sales tax and parking meters, the income from which would pour into the San Diego city treasury. Such things as our roads, which they claim has one-thirtieth of a mile, or less than half a block up to city standards, would have to be brought up to that standard at the expense of the local property owner in order to qualify for city upkeep and repair. This situation certainly does not speak well for the county road department.

Where annexation will hurt the most is in the pocketbook of those least able to meet the cost . . . those with a houseful of kids. San Diego does not afford transportation to students and should Lemon Grove's school system become a part of San Diego's, parents will have to lay $2.10 on the line every month for each youngster attending the San Diego school system. More than that, the city board of education said they would resist any further annexation unless the annexed area agreed to share a pro rata share of San Diego schools' bonded indebtedness. That would obviously be added to the present Lemon Grove school bonds costs.

Nor does the city propose to solve our sewer problems. This will remain the problem of the individual and collective property owners as it is now.

The report on annexation was requested by a group of local business men and property owners because San Diego had been nibbling off chunks around the edges of the community. Every such bite throws a heavier tax burden on those in the various taxing districts which make up the community.

To dramatize this situation to the ridiculous, let's imagine being nibbled away to a population of 1,750 residents instead of 17,500 as there are now. The remaining souls would still be responsible for a fire department, for example. While the department might not be so large, the expense would possibly be cut as much as 50%, but that would be charged against 10% of the present population and the district taxes would rise astronomically.

That is the reason all groups and organizations which have been active in community affairs state categorically that there can be no status quo, or, an unincorporated county area as we now stand. Community planners and most thoughtful residents are in agreement on this point. There can be no status quo, there should be no annexation!

That leaves only one alternative, that of incorporation and the REVIEW believes this to be the only solution to our difficulties. Incorporation may cost more money, but not much. It will cost the average home-owner about $15-18 a year more. For this he will enjoy better police protection; better roads and cleaner streets; a city council dedicated to working for the community as opposed to the Board of Supervisors which necessarily spreads over the entire county; a possible city manager who will work out community problems with the supervisors and county planners where needed; a local office for permits, licenses and other civic necessities.

Councilman are required to serve without pay, unless you want to vote them a salary. A maximum tax rate of $1 is all that is permitted a corporate city by law. This would include our fire district taxes and would probably cover trash and garbage disposal, for which we now pay separately.

Obviously, incorporation is not a sinster affair, otherwise it would not be so popular with the thousands of communities now enjoying it.

What's more, it tailors city government right to the needs of the community it serves. Additionally, some of the tax money being used across the county would be nailed down for the city of Lemon Grove.

Those who have trucked down to Civic Center for various needs will know what we mean when we plead for a form of city government that will serve our people on a personal basis rather than in the disinterested fashion we experience downtown at present.

For those of us who wear the San Diego County Governmental Run-Around Medal, with the Brush-Off Cluster, that means a lot.

Fans May Start for Ball Game and Come Up With Steak Dinners

The Lions-Kiwanis baseball game scheduled to start promptly at 2 p.m. Sunday, September 19 at the Junior High School baseball diamond will have a host of side attractions, according to the baseball committee appointed by the two service clubs, plus members of the Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Committee.

In addition to a hardly-professional baseball game between the Kiwanis Killers and the Lion Larrupers, a series of ceremonies will be run off. For one thing, a flag which Congressman James Utt had flown over the U. S. Capitol, will be presented to Monterey Heights Cub Pack 399 by Ralph Cloyed, California Assemblyman. The flag will be accepted by Mrs. William Tarditi of Montey Heights who was instrumental in founding the Pack.

Tickets are being distributed this week to baseball lovers at the rate of 50 cents a copy. In addition to seeing a sterling brand of ball, fans will have the chance of winning, via a drawing, such things as four steak dinners at Pal's; four full course dinners at Michael's; cash and merchandise to the tune of about $50, according to Arva Piepenbrink, of the baseball committee.

Emmett Marshall, chairman of the Swimming Pool Association, said that every penny collected would go into the swimming pool fund, which already totals about $2,500.

At the game, dedication of 200 bleacher seats which were purchased earlier this year by the Lions Club will be made. Lion President Al Cole will make the presentation to Byron Netzley, school superintendent.

Recreation League trophies will be awarded by Mike Calderone to youngsters who have earned them.

Two well known baseball players have been asked to share duties in umpiring the game. Al Olson and Eddie Euratt, both of whom are area residents, will work the game, schedules permitting.

Grant Hadley and Dr. Thayer Crow will announce the game and the drawing will be part of the finale.

Food and drinks will be served, according to the committee. A probable line-up has been promised by captains of each team. Chan Mason said he would field the strongest Kiwanis team to date. Lion manager Cal Nicholl said his team's strength would be in the pitching-fielding departments. Last year the Kiwanis walloped the Lions by about 30 to 18.

December Vote on Annexation An Almost Certainty

Incorporation appeared headed for a December ballot this week as Robert O. Gauldin, co-chairman with Forrest Baxter of Organizations United for Incorporation reported that enough qualified signatures had been obtained to bring the issue to vote. He was less optimistic concerning property value of these petitioners.

About 1,800 names had already been affixed to the petitions. Gauldin estimated that 1,300 would have covered the required number to qualify as to quantity but it would take about 2,000 signatures to cover enough assessed valuation. Under California law, such petitions must represent at least 25% of the property within the confines of the boundaries of the proposed corporate city and this list must represent also 25% of the boundaries' assessed valuation.

Petitions are to be turned in Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Justice Court Building, according to Bob Gauldin. A notary will be present to notarize the papers.

Gauldin said that several holders of large real estate chunks have offered to sign and this would bring the petitioning to an end this week.

The petitions will be turned over, this week, to the Board of Supervisors who will have the names and property descriptions checked by the assessor's office. Law requires this job to be completed in 30 days.

If the petition qualifies, another 15 days will be allowed in which the petitioners will deposit about $3,000 to cover the cost of printing, advertising and other costs attendant the election. Hearings will then be held by the Board of Supervisors for a period not to exceed 60 days. All property owners who wish to protest or be excluded, may appeal to the board during this period.

If the Board approves the request of the petitioners, another 14 days will be required for the mechanics of the election to be put into motion.

Although the president of the Chamber of Commerce has recently professed ingnorance of incorporation facts, it was the chamber which spearheaded the move when the board of trustees unanimously endorsed incorporation for Lemon Grove. In rapid succession, most of the other clubs and groups gave incorporation their blessing. Even church groups, such as St. John of the Cross; The Congregational, The First Baptist and the Methodist Church, and others, have been active in obtaining signatures for the petition.

Gauldin said that the report of San Diego's survey in which Lemon Grove would be considered for annexation proved to his committee that incorporation was not only necessary now, but that it was vital to the future welfare of the community.

The Dixon LINE

Robert E. McDavid, Republican Nominee for Member of the State Board of Equalization in the Fourth District, charged recently that William G. Bonelli has tightened his control on the liquor licence market in Southern California by a clever connivance in declaring a year's moratorium on the issuance of new liquor licenses. Commenting on the recent action of the Board of Equalization, McDavid noted that no restrictions were placed on the transfer of licenses already issued and observed that this action will have the immediate effect of increasing the market price of existing licenses.

Quoting McDavid: "The present resale market of liquor licenses in Bonelli's corrupt Fourth District is almost at a standstill, due to the expanding investigation of graft and fraud in the Southern California license racket. Bonelli's carefully planned action is a windfall to his many 'friends' who have licenses for sale and to the liquor license brokers whose victims are the honest people who earn a legitimate livelihood." The Board granted permission to 61 persons to apply for new licenses, which will probably be granted before putting the freeze order into effect and Bonelli estimated that approxi-

New FHA Rules Make Home Owning Easier

The Housing Act of 1954, the latest FHA rule book by which new home owners may operate, will have a greater impact on the way of life of Americans than anything since the original Housing Act was begun two decades ago. Ray R. Moore, Mortgage Procedure Representative for the Federal Housing Administration in San Diego told the Review this week that the new regulations are designed to carry out the Administration's program to enable more American families to live in better homes.

"It looks like it was designed especially for Lemon Grove," Moore said. "We are getting increasingly more inquiries from this area."

While the new regulation does mean lower down payment and smaller monthly payments, the FHA, Moore said, does not lend money. It only assures the loan will be repaid in case of default, and the borrower pays ½ of 1 per cent for the insurance. The maximum interest that may be charged by the lender is 4½ per cent. That means the home owner may pay as much as 5 per cent interest.

90% of First $9,000

New FHA regulations permit a loan-value ratio of 95 per cent of the first $9,000 for new construction, or for existing construction built under FHA inspections. Non FHA property will have a guarantee limit of 90 per cent of the same amount. In all events, Moore pointed out, the insurance is for the appraised value set by FHA. The Administration guarantees 75 per cent of all amounts appraised over $9,000.

"There should be no problem in appraisal values," Moore said. "Our appraisals are normally about what the price should be when a buyer who wants to buy agrees with a seller who wants to sell. If the buyer agrees to an above-the-normal-market price, he'll be required to dig up this difference," Moore explained.

Moore pointed out that FHA could only consider insurance after a lender had been nailed down. "This will emphasize the fact that we do not lend money," he said. "That is where banks, insurance firms, and other approved lending institutions come into the picture.

How FHA works in Lemon Grove is cited by this example: Suppose the buyer agrees to buy a house on Mt. Vernon St. which the FHA appraises at $12,000. That can be mortgaged now up to $10,800, leaving a down payment of only $1,200. (The previous down payment was $2,400.)

Another feature of the new Act is that the seller is required now to deliver to the buyer, prior to the sale, a written statement setting forth FHA's appraised value of the property.

The buyer pays a $45 fee to the Administration on new construction or $20 on existing structures, for which he gets one or more inspections, plus suggestions in location of the lot, or on architecture should it be needed or requested; arrangements with the lender for doing all the bookkeeping such as making insurance, tax and interest payments; out of the one regular payment; requirement of seller to give buyer the appraisal total; requirement that the seller give the buyer a warranty that the house was constructed in conformity with plans and specifications on new constructions; and elimination of second mortgages and need for periodic and expensive refinancing.

The buyer naturally, puts up 100 per cent of the cost above the percentage required by FHA.

The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

You no longer have to make a damned liar or a thieving crook of yourself and your family when personal tax time comes again to this semi-tropical little corner of heaven-on-earth but there are going to be some awfully red faces under a new assessing arrangement.

I can chortle in fiendish glee at the thought of some of the smart alecs getting caught in the personal property tax web which is being neatly woven about some of you less-than-honest rascals by our new hard-hitting, direct-talking County Tax Assessor, Arthur Eddy.

I'm already enmeshed to the hilt in the toils of this tax so it's a misery-love-company sort of a complex that appeals to the perverse side of my nature.

My wife is ordinarily a truthful and honorable woman although she is wont to stretch the truth a trifle when bragging about the kids, or the new washing machine or cocktail table, but you ought to hear that babe, and her thousands of counterparts, talk it down when she tells the tax assessor about that table, or the washing machine. The table was picked up at a rummage sale and the automatic part of the washer doesn't even work and the whole deal is ready for the junk yard, after less than a year, yet.

I can sympathize with these gals too, because once a female assessor . . . by that I mean a female whose job it is to assess, called at my office on press day, the busiest day of my week. Under pressure of her demands for an immediate estimate, I unconsciously played it honest. When the bill came I was stunned. I called the tax folks and explained my pitifully few belongings were not gold with diamond trim but they said here it is in black and white . . . your figures and your signature . . . but they would come out and assess it again. Now I had just gotten a new press and I didn't want the rascals to add that, so I clammed up.

The new arrangement on personal property taxes will start us all off again with a clean and honest slate. First, Eddy, the tax man, assumes that personal property valuation has a direct ratio to the value of the building which houses it, so he fires all the assessors which, together with attendant expenses, saves the taxpayers $100,000 a year. Then he opens the assessment rolls and every building which houses a human will have a personal property tax laid against it. If you rent, the landlord passes the bill back to the assessor and you get it.

I don't see how Eddy thought up this simple but effective tax device ahead of the national government which seems to have the edge on taxes, all kinds and shapes. Anyhow, he has a sliding scale which is equalizing within itself. If the place you are living in is assessed at up to $4,000, Eddy says the personal belongings therein, and attached thereto, are worth 10% or $400. Then, if the tax rate this year is $6, you'll pay $24. Between $4,000 and $8,000 the rate is 12% and from $8,000 to $12,000 the rate is 15%.

The reason I'm so happy about all of this is more than the fact that I'll save about $20 this year. I'm laughing partly because of the wailing that will result from some of you rascals resisting the opportunity to turn tax-honest as you get caught for the first time. Ha!

C of C To Protest Public Utility Zoning Non-Hearing

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce voted Tuesday to protest the County Zoning Ordinance that would permit public utilities to obtain zoning variances for their works without public hearings. The protest was called for by chamber president Vernier who read a long prepared statement attacking the proposal.

The board also voted to contribute $50 to Organizations United for Incorporation to aid in bringing the incorporation issue to an early vote.

The chamber board had unanimously endorsed the principles of incorporation at the August meeting.

Resignations of board members Norman Lighthart and Mc Bailey were accepted.

Methodists to Move to New Meeting Place

As of Sunday, September 26, the Methodist Church of Lemon Grove will be meeting in the Woman's Club House on Olive St. According to Rev. The congregation has been meeting the past year in the Seventh Day Adventist Church, but this will no longer be available after the 26th.

With the move, Church School will begin at the new hour of 9:30 a.m. Worship services will

Metropolitan Water Rate Reduced 2¢

For the fifth successive year, the Metropolitan Water District tax rate has been reduced. This time the levy by action of the District Board of Directors was cut from the current rate of 25c per $100 of assessed valuation to 23c for the year 1954-55.

Chairman Joseph Jensen of the District's Board of Directors stated that the tax reduction authorized today (August 20) has been made effective despite the fact that the Water District is now engaged in a major $52,000-000 aqueduct extension program to meet the constantly increasing need for Colorado River water in the homes and industries of Southern California.

Action of the District Board in authorizing the tax reduction was taken on the recommendation of its Finance Committee and Controller Albert W. McKinlay. Also approving the tax cut was Robert B. Diemer, General Manager and Chief Engineer. Since the District tax rate reached its highest level of 50c in 1945-46, successive reductions year after year have cut the rate to less than half, Controller McKinlay pointed out.

Of the new 23c tax rate, McKinlay stated, 16c will be used to meet interest and principal payments on outstanding Colorado River aqueduct bonds that were sold to finance the construction of the giant water supply system from the Colorado River. The remaining 7c will be used to meet Federal Government and other obligations. All operating expenses are being paid from the District's water revenues, McKinlay said.

All charges on Colorado River aqueduct bonds are being paid by the water users in the Metropolitan Water District, McKinlay stated. He pointed out that no Federal subsidies of any kind are being received to help pay any part of the aqueduct water supply.

Cities and areas within the Metropolitan Water District are not required to meet assessments made against them from taxes but may pay these charges, if they choose, from water or other revenues, Chairman Jensen pointed out. He stated that San Diego next year will levy no taxes to meet Metropolitan Water District obligations, but will pay all these charges from their water or other revenues.

Factors which help to make possible the reduction of the Metropolitan Water District tax rate, Chairman Jensen pointed out, include increasing revenues from the sale of Colorado River water and an increase in the assessed valuation of property within the District.

Covering an area of more than 2100 square miles and including 50 incorporated cities and much unincorporated territory, the Metropolitan Water District now has an assessed valuation of more than six billion five hundred million dollars, and a population in excess of 4,000,000, it was pointed out by Chairman Jensen.

The aqueduct of the Metropolitan Water District has its intake on the Colorado River above Parker Dam and extends clear across the state of California. The aqueduct system, including its distributing lines, is 457 miles in length. The people of the cities and areas within the Metropolitan Water District, Chairman Jensen declared, are dependent in a constantly increasing degree upon Colorado River water.

Beauty is Winner for Local 'Shutterbug'

"Sea Nymph," this week's winner for Sid Neff

A swicth of scenery, and for the better, too, comes into the winner's circle for this week's Lemon Grove Camera Show-Review snapshot contest. The picture was taken of Jean Hammett, 17 year old winner of the 1954 Harbor Days Queen Contest and the shot was taken by Sid Neff, 5315 Olvera St., near Encanto.

The picture was taken at La Jolla with a 4x5 Speed Graphic camera shot at 1/100 at f:16. Sid is president of the Ryan Camera Club and is employed in the engineering department of the Ryan plant. He has never entered a picture in a contest before but has been active in amateur circles.

The winner will receive two free out-of-this-world barbecued spare rib dinners at Pal's Restaurant on Imperial Ave.; two basketburger dinners at the Lemon Grove Drive-in on Broadway near Massachusetts, and two tickets to the Grove Theatre which has been recently remodeled.

Any picture, old or new, may be entered in the contest. All snapshots are eligible whether they were processed at the Camera Shop or elsewhere. No purchase is necessary, either. All that is needed is a negative and a print, and the request at the Camera Shop, 7848 Broadway, to enter the picture in the contest.

Upside-down pictures of the Curtiss "Jenny" on 24c air mail stamps printed in 1918 are a postal rarity. Of 100 originally printed, 88 remain. They sell for $4,000 a copy, or $352,000. Original cost of 88 was $21.12.

IF YOUR DRIVING MANNERS ARE BAD, YOU MAY BE ILL

SACRAMENTO — If you violate traffic laws you may be sicker than you think.

Psychologists state that motorists who employ bad driving manners, including right-of-way snatching, unsafe passing and weaving from lane to lane, may be showing symptoms of mental illness.

Turning to the records, California Highway Patrol statistics have determined that, month by month, more than one-fourth of all accidents on highways in unincorporated areas of the state are caused by these same violations.

In commenting on this fact, Highway Patrolman Bill Howell observed that whether or not these drivers are mentally ill, the overall problem of traffic violations and traffic violators is a social illness of the first magnitude.

"Enforcement officers who frequently see these dangerous acts naturally wonder about the soundness of reasoning of some motorists.

"It may indicate mental illness when a driver cuts sharply in front of another vehicle at high speed, or when he attempts to pass without sufficient clearance. Of this fact, we are certain: Such actions indicate an extreme lack of judgment and social responsibility and are viewed with extreme disfavor by law enforcement personnel," Howell declared.

Sacramento, Calif., Sept. 7

Dear Sir:

The California Highway Patrol is making a concerted effort to acquaint the motoring public with the dangers of high speed and the troubles which arise from too slow speed. The situation has become to critical that the entire patrol shortly will center much of its attention on such violations.

So far this year California has made an appreciable reduction in fatalities and we are certain much of the credit for this improved picture can be traced to the attitude of the public as developed by those of you in the information media field. There is still much work to be done and we turn to you for your continued support.

I know Captain Clodfelter and Patrolman Howell in your community will be glad to work with you in any way.

Handsome Tommy Leonetti, Capitol's newest crooner, was barred, a few months back, from making a public appearance at two high schools in Hammond Indiana, because Superintendent Lee Caldwell said "drooling and schooling don't mix." . . . The incomparable Miss Ella Fitzgerald was feted in New York City recently on the occasion of her 19th anniversary in show business. . . . The Lithographers National Association, the guys who ought to know what's happening, recenty awarded Capitol Records three out of the top five prizes in the Fouth Lithographic Awards competition!

!THE SHOW'S THE THING!

If you're an extrovertive person that likes stampedes, violence, and gang wars; and if you like western movies in general and John Derek in particular then don't pass up "The Outcast" now playing at the GROVE Theater. "The Outcast" stars John Derek and Joan Evans and is in trucolor. The companion feature is "The Long Wait," adapted from the novel of the same name by Mickey Spillane, a noted modern fiction writer. "The Long Wait" is a wierd movie that leaves the audience in a state of perplexity throughout most of the show. It makes with tense action and four beautiful dolls that fall all over themselves trying to win the love of their long lost "Johnny." See the show and you'll see what I mean! These two shows will run to and including Saturday!

Also on Saturday big things are happening! For the kids' matinees starting at 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. there will be five cartoons, an exciting serial, "Commando Cody"; plus a full length western feature, "Toughest Man in Arizona." Then Sunday there are special doings for the adults, in fact, for everyone of all ages. Sunday night is Premium Night! $100 worth of popular, top brand, grade "A" merchandise will be given away free to people sitting in lucky seats—the winners are decided by a drawing, and the drawing continues until all the prizes are given away. Watches (Bulovas, Gruens, etc.), costume jewelry and other articles will be the prizes. And take my word for it, these prizes aren't second hand cheap stuff—it's the real thing! —B. T.

The California Beef Industry launched an eat-more-beef program, for those who can afford it, according to Carl Garrison, industry president.

YOU BE THE JUDGE!

BANKRUPTCY

In bygone days when a man got himself hopelessly into debt, the courts would jail him until he paid. Or, as in our colonial days, a man became an "indentured" servant, and would come to America to work off his debt.

Neither jail nor servitude proved practical. A man in jail could not earn anything to pay his debts. It was drastic—something like the Siberian salt mines—to send a man to serve for years across the seas.

Through hard luck, illness, easy credit, impulse buying, or shifts in world affairs, men and women may find themselves hopelessly in debt.

Our bankruptcy laws aim to permit an honest but unlucky or weak debtor to turn over a new leaf. They allow him to file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. He accounts for all of his property and turns it over for his creditor's benefit. The court sets up machinery to get as much of their money back as possible.

The court then adjudges the man a bankrupt. This means, with some exceptions, that the court will discharge him of his debts. Any income he gets after that time cannot be reached in court to pay his old debts.

Debtors may try to gain in ways not intended by the bankruptcy laws. If so, creditors may object. Besides, the courts may deal drastically with such debtors under our criminal laws.

Under the bankruptcy laws, a man may hold certain things such as those exempt under the homestead law — usually his home; and furniture, clothing, the family car, and the tools of his trade.

Goods bought under a "conditional sales contract"—the time payment plan most in use today, are not exempt. Creditors may have such things as washing machines, radios, TV sets repossessed for unpaid balances, for title to them is not transferred until the whole amount is paid.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

MAYFAIR PARKING Is Tops With Shoppers

The ballots have been counted – and the returns are in! Mayfair parking wins in a landslide

Everyone we asked – even those who lived close enough to walk, commended Mayfair for it's huge, well-planned parking area.

You can rack up a vote for Mayfair parking from Jim Heck, 5244 Streamview Dr. in San Diego.

"I find Mayfair parking the most convenient of any market," he said. "I particularly like the easy angle arrangement."

A Convair employe, he shops regularly for his wife Viola, his three children, James Jr., Neld and John. "Mayfair took the worry out of shopping for us," he said.

Frank Werner, 1731 Eldora St. in Lemon Grove, a retired auto mechanic, is loud in his praise of the ease and comfort of Mayfair parking. "I always find a parking spot, no matter what day I shop," he said.

His wife, Mary, is an accountant-clerk with the U. S. Navy and she accompanies him on many of the shopping forays.

"Mary likes it too," he said. "There is no pressure in getting in or out, and we also know we can find what we want after we're here."

Parking for 4,000 cars a day can be handled in the huge parking area which wraps around the Mayfair Market in Lemon Grove. The picture here graphically shows how immense the area is. Actually, only about one tenth of the parking space is shown here. Another complete parking lot which is used in an emergency, is across Pacific St. in back of the market. This area can handle another 1,000 cars a day when needed.

Mary Lou Curbow, 2952 B St., San Diego, is a Mayfair cashier. "It's pleasant to hear shoppers praise quality, quantity and variety. Most of all they express delight over the Mayfair parking arrangement. I think that I have my first squawk to hear about parking. At other places I worked the chronic complaint was that they had to walk so far from where their car was parked," she said.

Guy and Jackie Polzel, 2153 National Ave., together with Richard Ryan, their 22 month old son, are happy Mayfair shoppers. "Taking a youngster as active as Richard shopping would be almost impossible if we had to fight for parking space," Mrs. Polzel said. "We have fun at Mayfair because of the big, swell parking area," Guy added.

Activation of Catholic Civic Clubs Encouraged

Activation of a Catholic Civics Club in every school of the diocese was encouraged this week by the Reverend George M. Rice, diocesan Superintendent of Schools, in a letter sent to the principal.

In his letter to the schools, Father Rice described the Catholic Civics Clubs as "an effective force in promoting an understanding of Christian social principles through planning, study, and practical projects."

The Catholic Civics Clubs, sponsored by the Commission on American Citizenship of The Catholic University of America, are designed to "foster and promote civic virtue and to be a positive aid to teachers in training their pupils to become alert and articulate Christian citizens." Clubs are usually organized among boys and girls in the upper elementary grades.

As a means to the attainment of its over-all objective, the Commission yearly establishes a theme for a specific program of study and action. This theme will be the subject of a new series of picture-stories in Treasure Chest, the nationally distributed Catholic comic-style magazine, issued biweekly during the school year.

Last year's theme was "We're All People."

The 1954-55 theme is "We Need One Another." This theme is designed to promote understanding of the material interdependence of men, with special reference to the close relationship that exists between urban and rural people. Through a unified approach, the theme will demonstrate man's dependence upon God . . . and the unity of all men.

The 1954-1955 theme of the Catholic Civics Club, Father Rice emphasized, "will be a practical means for the training of boys and girls to become good citizens for God and country."

TODAY'S meditation from The Upper Room

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

READ MARK 6:7-13

So, much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome. (Romans 1:15. A.S.V.)

Although there were already Christians in Rome, the Apostle Paul wanted to go there. He had something to give everywhere because he belonged to Christ. Since Christ had come into the world Paul wanted to keep going into the world.

"To be a Christian is to be a missionary"—this was the theme of a youth camp in South India. The Christian young people there were saying something to themselves and not merely framing a catch phrase for the headlines of a program. Because they realized the universal obligation that is in the Gospel of Christ, they were to be missionaries. During the camp, when the call was made for missionary work in and beyond their own state, fifteen young men and women responded.

Christ's mission for the Church always has new beginnings. It begins with anyone, wherever he may be, who realizes what it means to be a Christian.

PRAYER

Eternal Father, whose love has called us to Thyself, enable us now in grateful obedience to know how Thy love in Christ sends us into the world. Give each of us this longing and desire that all men may know the glory and power of Thy coming in Jesus Christ Thy Son. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"To be a Christian is to be a missionary."

Inter-P. U. Contracts Of Phone Company Checked

SAN FRANCISCO—The California Public Utilities Commission has ordered an investigation of the special service contracts of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The order said that the telephone company has entered into a considerable number of rate and service contracts involving the leasing and use of telephone equipment with other public utilities, governmental agencies, corporations and others, and that some of these contracts have been filed with the commission and others have not.

The investigation is to determine whether or not these contracts are within the scope of the commission's jurisdiction and should be appropriately dealt with by the commission under the law

Mrs. Roy Davis Joins 99s Club

Mrs. Roy Davis, 3346 Par Dr., La Mesa, will be welcomed as a new member of the Ninety-Nines, Inc., international organization of licensed women pilots, at a patio dinner meeting of the organization in the home of Mrs. Harry Bartling, 1958 Erie St., San Diego, at 6:00 p.m.

Election officers for the ensuing year will be held.

Also, plans for attending the Southwestern Section meeting will be made. The meeting will be held the weekend of September 25-26 at Desert Air Hotel, Palm Spring, California, with the Coachella Valley Chapter as hostess.

One in Five Pupils Has Visual Difficulty Says Optometrist

One child in every five entering first grade this year will be hampered by a visual handicap, according to Dr. Calvin Nicholl, Lemon Grove optometrist.

He said that the Vision Conservation Institute had released the report based on information garnered from research which also revealed that 40 per cent of the children in the fourth grade and 70 per cent of the children in the eighth grade need visual help.

The increase between the first and eighth grades results from the additional demands placed on vision as a child progresses through school.

Most of these visual handicaps are not obvious and for that reason have not been corrected. Even the most alert parents and teachers fail to recognize these inadequacies. Such inadequacies have a direct effect on the ability of the child to realize success in school.

Catholic Schools Ready for Fall Session

Schools in the Catholic diocese of San Diego will open their doors to an estimated 21,000 students on opening day, Monday. This year's enrollment marks an increase of over 18,000 children since the diocese was established in 1936. At that time there were less than 3,000 pupils enrolled in diocesan institutions. In Lemon Grove, St. John of the Cross is in the diocese.

Five hundred priests, religious and lay teachers will be required to staff the 70 schools. Three are located in Imperial County, nine in Riverside County, ten in San Bernardino County, and the rest in San Diego County.

Two high schools, St. Augustine's, San Diego, and Newman High at Fontana are for boys; St. Bernardine's, San Bernardino, and St. Francis de Sales, Riverside, are coeducational, and six institutions serve girls alone.

Calendars for the 1954-1955 school year have been issued by the office of the superintendent of schools of the diocese, designating the schedule for the coming year.

MRS. McMAHON'S NEPHEW PAYS A VISIT

John Forker of Newton Iowa, nephew of Grover McMahon, and wife Eva, is visiting at the couple's home at 3039 Cypress St. Corporal Forker was recently flown back from Korea, where he served with the Army Engineers.

He experienced actual fighting which is not usual for the Engineer Corpsmen.

Carnations for Spicy Bouquets in L. G. Gardens

Fragrant flowers are a desirable addition to every Lemon Grove garden, but spicy fragrance such as that yielded by the delightful carnation is a gardening must. Nothing surpasses the pure tantalizing aroma such as is afforded by this old garden standby and few flowers give more enduring satisfaction than carnations.

Available as both cutting grown and seedling grown plants there is a wide selection of colors to choose from in today's carnation offerings. Indeed some of the new hybrid forms seem too beautiful to be real. Many varieties have a charming fringing and mottling in delicate two color combinations.

Seedling plants are often offered in marked colors but are usually offered as a mixture. It is in the cutting grown carnations that the rarer forms are found that become true collector's items. Grown by cuttings taken from known mother stock plants almost every shade and hue of red and yellow are available. Also pure whites and off-shade purples are to be found. Usually the better varieties are grown on in plant bands and are individually labeled with both name and description.

Carnations do require care and attention for best results. Plants should be staked at an early stage of growth or trained in carnation ring stakes, to insure straight stems. All of the lateral buds should be pinched from each shoot leaving just the terminal bud to receive all of the growing strength. Left unbudded the flower will be of poor quality. Regular spraying is of vital importance. Carnations will thrive in any soil, but heavy adobe should be broken up with well rotted manure.

Carnation plants can be grown as perennials but the plants should be kept low and bushy or the bottom portion becomes too scraggly to be attractive.

For plants that are wintered over, a good winter oil spray or general clean up spray should be used. Again in spring regular monthly spraying should be maintained to keep the aphids and leaf-rollers and kindred pests in control. With care carnations will be a source of pride in the garden for a period of several years.

BEGONIA CLUB MEETS MONDAY

La Mesa Begonia society will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lowry, 3780 Massachusetts, Lemon Grove, for a pot-luck dinner Monday, September 13, at 6:30. Bring table service for your party. Charles Williams, president, will conduct the business meeting and P. P. Lee, vice president, will present Mrs. Alice M. Clark, of Point Loma, and nomenclature chairman for the American Begonia society. She will talk on begonias.

REGULAR SERVICES TO BE RESUMED AT ST. PHILIP'S

On Sunday, Sept. 5, the regular 11:00 a.m. service will be resumed at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Palm at Hardy Rd. The regular Wednesday service of Holy Communion has also been resumed at the hour of 9:30.

The regular classes of the Church School will begin on Sept. 12, Registration Day.

Mrs. J. B. Pearce and Mrs. T. F. Nutter have a beautiful assortment of Christmas cards, notes, wrappings, available now, and at the Harvest Festival, Sept. 24 and 25.

Some of the entertainment for the children at the Harvest Festival will be the Merry-go-round, the Whip, and the Rocket Ride.

The Bishop's Committee will meet Tuesday evening, Sept. 7, at 7:30 in the Church rooms.

Mrs. Morse Reports On Eastern Trip

Mrs. Randolph Morse, 8354 Golden Ave., has just returned from an extended visit at the east coast.

This is what she reports: "After spending two months on the east coast it is a pleasure to return to California. Interesting item, when an auto license is up for renewal every four years, just mail in the money—no examination, next year periodical examinations will be in order. Boys receiving their licenses at 18 cannot drive after dark until 21. There is no daily polio statistics in the New York papers, as in the Union. This was very distasteful to the ones who read the San Diego papers. The coast guard had started notifying people the night before I left of the hurricane approaching. Departing from New York on the D. C. 7 in the hurricane made a very stormy trip to Chicago, however reached Los Angeles in a matter of six hours.

"Reached Lemon Grove to find a controversy pertaining to Incorporation. To date have heard only the facts for it. Would like to see two columns in this paper pro and con—as Jack Webb so often says in 'Dragnet,' 'We want the facts.'"

Woman's Juniors Start New Season

The first meeting of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors 1954-55 club year, will be called to order by Mrs. Leon Meyer, president, Tuesday.

Ways and Means projects for the coming year will be discussed by Mrs. Lawrence Souzzani, chairman.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mmes. Robert Jones, Fred Guerney and Richard Mann.

Mrs. B. M. Castle, membership chairman, has planned something really different on the "Indian Theme," so popular this year, for the new members party at which time prospective members to the "Juniors" are entertained and told of the work done by this philanthropic organization.

Mrs. Castle is also planning a small informal get together at the home of Mrs. Wm. Miller, 2336 Loma Dr., to precede the party by a week.

Mrs. Erwin Major, 2221 Cypress, will be hostess to the board meeting for officers to be held Sept. 13 at 8 p.m.

REVOLUTIONARY BROADCAST PLANNED FOR SUNDAY

Southern California's Premiere to the whole realm of Hi-Fi sound is announced for September 10, 1954 at 6:30 p.m. by radio stations KSON-AM (1240) and KSON-FM (101.5).

To the audiophile this program comes as welcome news, and for the potential Hi-Fi enthusiast it opens a whole new realm of sound, ideas, and reactions.

This half hour broadcast of the unusual in sound and sound effects has been produced by using tone and sounds common in everyday life, instruments found in any orchestra or band as well as new and interesting instruments manufactured for the occasion. The broadcast portrays sound covering the whole spectrum of sound including wierderies of sound, deluxe noises, as well as music.

Good Eatin'—Cheddar On Pie!

Here is a dessert to intrigue your appetite—cinnamon-spiced apple pie glorified with a wedge of good aged cheddar cheese! This American custom is one of the great delights of dining. It is especially so today, because a new and excellent natural cheddar cheese has just arrived on the market, and it's perfect for pie. You can choose it either in a "mellow" mood or aged to achieve that exciting "sharp" taste. Protectively wrapped, this new cheddar is sold in a wedge-shape, ready to cut into triangles for pie or to serve with fresh fruit on a cheese tray.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS LEADERS' MEETING TO BE AT MRS. CLOSE'S HOME

A bus load of Junior Camp Fire girls and Bluebirds enjoyed six weeks of resident camping at the Lolegro Camp Fire Cabin in Balboa Park. Included in the day's activities was an hour of swimming in the municipal pool which is near the cabin. There was also a good attendance of girls at Camp Wolahi in the Cuyamaca Mountains. Camp Wolahi is where the new swimming pool was built, which was paid for by the peanut sale money. There were also several new additions to the camp this year such as a new nurse's cabin with four rooms in it, to meet any emergency, new craft houses and several new tent houses and better water supply.

Several groups have carried on all summer. We will miss the Fletcher Carrs and their family as they have moved to Julian and Mrs. Steppler, who has been such a fine leader, will be unable to carry on due to her husband's illness. The first leaders' meeting will be a pot luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Juanita Close, 7529 Central Ave., Lemon Grove, Monday, Sept. 20 at 12:30.

SCALLOP POTATOES WITH A SOUP-SAUCE

FALL brings a tide of fresh enthusiasm for things domestic. Mrs. Homemaker looks for improved ways to do things, from cleaning the house to preparing meals.

New ideas in the cooking department are always welcome. With gusto, the homemaker clips recipes from newspapers and magazines and tries them out on the family. When a dish meets their approval, she tucks the recipe into her file or cookbook to be used again real soon.

A "family-tested" recipe with a slightly different twist is scalloped potatoes made with condensed soup. A can of cream of chicken, celery or mushroom soup makes a smooth flavorful sauce for the potatoes. Once the family has tasted them prepared this way, they'll never want them any other. As Susy says, "They're scrumptious!"

A cup of cooked chicken or turkey (from can or roast) goes into the dish, too, as well as a bit of onion, pimiento, and seasonings. When all ingredients are combined in a casserole, they are whisked into the oven to bake for 30 minutes. That allows time for the homemaker to toss greens for a salad and warm some cheese-topped English muffins. Dessert could be fruited gelatin or apple brown Betty.

"Extra-Special" Scalloped Potatoes

1 can (1¼ cups) condensed cream of mushroom soup*
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon salt
Dash black pepper
1 small onion, minced
5 cups sliced, cooked potatoes
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Blend soup, milk, salt, pepper and onion. Arrange alternate layers of potatoes and sauce in a greased 1½-quart casserole; dot top with butter. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) for 30 minutes. 6 servings.

*Cream of celery or cream of chicken soup may be substituted.

Just Jazz . . . was presented at the Russ Auditorium last Monday night by Don Howard and Gene Norman, top radio disc-jockeys. Such outstanding entertainers as Barney Kessell, Art Pepper, Max Roach, Zoot Sims, Gene Kruppa, Buddy Rich and Duke Ellington and his fine band gave the audience their best. Although at times "their best" grew a mite monotonous, a general good time was had by all. Sprinkled throughout the rhythm lovin' crowd were Eloise Williams 'n Karl Smillion; Lennie Weber 'n date, Marie Meluno 'n Steve Clarkson, Nancy Martinez 'n Manuel Lorrito, Carol Kay 'n Bob Turnbull, Johnny Logan, Lester MacIntosh, Don Sleet, and others.

Aztec Gridders . . . belonging to San Diego State College have started a two-a-day workouts in preparation for a nine-game schedule this school year. Head coach Bill Shutte says around 50 men have shown up for their annual "blood-sweat-tears" routine before the school doors are thrown open to greet all the smiling (?) faces who are thirsty for knowledge! Coach Shutte spent a lot of his summer drawing up foxy new variations of the T-formation he hopes will confuse his opponents. Some of the key men that will be back into the smart looking black and red uniforms are: ace fullback, Norman Nygaard; sly halfback, Marshall Malcolm; hard-running Jay Gutowski; up-'n-coming quarterback, Frank Richardson. Also Vic Long (back), Eddie Johns, Mike Brown, Harry Higgins, Bob Newton and Monte Fritz (all linemen). The Aztecs' first game will be here on September 25 when they meet an always tough foe, the University of New Mexico.

At the same time Coach George Shutte, head mentor at San Diego Junior College, stated that 60 huskies reported last Wednesday for their initial workouts. A good team for JC is predicted!

September . . . Named for its original position in the Roman calendar as seventh month—from "Septum," seven.

20-6 . . . was the final score for the Southern California all-stars last week when they virtually drove the Los Angeles City all-stars 'neath Balboa Stadium's green turf. The SCIF lads now hold a 4-2 edge in the series. Doug Dick, an evasive halfback that hails Redondo as home, won the "Star of Star" award. Doug is a little fellow that stands 6 feet and tips the scales at a slim 190. The winner of the "Don Moomaw Award" (for linemen' went to center Dan Peterson of Santa Monica. A lot of our familiar faces were seen on the west side of the stadium. Some were: Sue Bledsoe 'n Wayne Sweetwood, Sally Culver 'n Carlos Fackrell, Michelle Murphy 'n Tom McCabe, Naomi Goyne 'n Gary Eikam, Richard Secor, Ernie Miller, Bobby Haynes, Jim Sinegal, Diane Gilmore, Bob Turnbull, Lanny Ross, and others.

$200,000 . . . is what the County Road Department receives annually to try and keep the roads, streets, avenues, boulevards, etc., in good enough order so that we may drive our mules across their skillfully constructed cow-paths. $200,000 is a lot of money in any man's pocket, especially when a group of people have it for some important work that will help Lemon Grove follow the path of progress. It is a well known fact that our Chamber of Commerce is nothing but slow in their progress—now it looks as though we citizens have to combat another infection—the obvious slowness of our County Road Department.

Don't get me wrong! I'm not blaming the workers, I'm sounding off at the leaders and heads of the department. If you can show me $200,000 worth of road work in our beloved limits I'll personally apologize in the Road Department's front office. Sure, you may show me road work that cost $200,000, but was it worth it?

There are so many, MANY streets in Lemon Grove alone that are in dire need of repair. For example: San Miguel, Mt. Vernon, Kempf St., Broadway, Sweetwater Rd., Jefferson St., Cypress, and many others, too numerous to mention. They are infested with ruts, holes, bumps, warps, pot-holes, etc., that driving a vehicle of transportation over them is a speck short of impossible.

Take a look at our neighboring town to the north, La Mesa. You would at least think the Road Department would have the logic of a water buffalo, which isn't asking too much, in fixing up a main drag that is excessively traveled. I'm speaking of University Blvd., between Helix and the center of La Mesa. When it rains the street is flooded, otherwise it makes an excellent fire-break for testing new cars. A word to the wise is sufficient — I hope the County Road Department wakes up to the facts that their work in Lemon Grove is too pitiful beyond words.

Heartland Players To Offer Acting Opportunities

In order that the Heartland Players might keep up with the growth of their community they have unanimously agreed to throw open their doors to their community for participation and complete reorganization.

At their last meeting it was voted that complete reorganization be undertaken and a gigantic membership drive set forth. Here is the chance for the whole family to receive the enjoyment of show biz, that thousands have enjoyed through the years. The group isn't looking for experienced people only, so if you are interested in any part of the theater and have had no experience, here is your opportunity to learn. Complete workshops and classes will be installed to prepare you for your part in the next play, or for the next setting you will help design. Here is an opportunity to see why so many people in the world are enlisted in show biz. Incidentally, the executive personnel has been changed so as to handle the new movement more easily.

A new play will be decided on by the membership as soon as a complete set of officers and chairmen can be elected.

Here is an opportunity to help in your community and enjoy yourself at the same time. Here is a chance for you to meet many friends who can help you to the enjoyment that has entranced them. If you are interested in any part of theater work, no matter how much or how little experience you have had, you are cordially invited to join. Please call HO 6-9470 or HO 9-7247 immediately.

Pete Mighetto Calls the Turns For Dancin' Dudes

The outdoor floor at St. John of the Cross was the scene of another successful Dancin' Dude party night recently. The Heartland Hoedowners had, as usual, a selection of bouncin' melodies that challenge anyone to sit still. Pete Mighetto, the Bing Crosby of the square dance callers, led club members and guests through an especially pleasant evening of square dancing. Of the dances that toe tappin' Bob Perry called the crowd especially liked the rollicking Alabama Jubilee. Dell Lake made a hit with the Red River Valley.

Highlights of the evening were the two mystery dances where Pete, after a short interval of "regular" square dancing, had the men stay in their sets and sent the women scurrying off to other sets. Then he left the women in their places and sent the men off. Ol' Pete he scrambled and unscrambled—squares of four, squares of eight, squares of sixteen and thirty-two—then one big ring around the floor. Back and forth and round and round—he twisted 'em, twirled 'em, swirled 'em, mixed 'em and finally set 'em down in one spot for a spell. Then in solitary splendor stalked "Chet" Rhodehamel across the floor. He gave Pete the name of a man written on a slip of paper at the beginning of the dance and known only to "Chet." The name of the man was—Marva West—he didn't win a thing. His charming partner, Beth Laney, they met just a few seconds before, won an unusual necklace and ear ring set. The process was repeated toward the end of the evening when the lucky lady was Sally Berger—she didn't win a thing either but her newly met partner Dick Woestman did. Dick took home a set of five of those gaudy pieces of fuzz that some of the male square dancers wear on their belt.

Pete's class of square dance beginners were the special guests of the Dancin' Dudes and Pete has done such a good job with an excellent group that not one of the watching guests realized that anything but "long-time" dancers were on the floor. As a matter of fact, if the horrible truth were known, some of the "old-timers" made more mistakes than the tyros.

Official greeters for the evening were Vic and Mary Hall and Connie Koenekemp. Refreshments after the dance and skullery detail after the refreshments were in charge of four lovely ladies and their (ugh) ugly spouses, Terry and Chuck Haradon, Grace and John Hughes, Agnes and Jake Jacobsmeyer, and Louise and Van Ingraham.

Civil Defense

By CHARLES GURLEY

A Civil Defense order has just been received from our Washington headquarters instructing local authorities to see that residents of this community have on hand an emergency supply of groceries, among which is listed a supply of rice, beans, cheese, canned goods, a suitable supply of water and a first aid kit, according to word just received by Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti, Zone Warden for this area.

"There is another feature that our populace probably won't like," said Dr. Gigliotti, "and that is everyone is supposed to report to the Zone Warden that they are so prepared, and within 15 days we are instructed to conduct a survey to see that such orders have been carried out.

"All of you who attended last Tuesday's meeting will have heard this order discussed at considerable length, but for the benefit of those who were not in attendance we wish to tell you that Washington headquarters regards this as a fundamentally serious matter and one of paramount importance," said Dr. Gigliotti.

Fewer Polio Deaths in County This Year

Reported cases of poliomyelitis among civilian residents of San Diego City and County from January 1 through August 19, total 89 with one death, according to Dr. J. B. Askew, Director of Public Health. During the same period in 1953, there were 157 civilian resident cases of poliomyelitis reported and nine deaths. Although there have been fewer cases of poliomyelitis so far in 1954, the proportion of paralytic cases is slightly higher than last year, Dr. Askew said. On the bright side, he pointed out that there are far fewer deaths from poliomyelitis this year than there were last year. Dr. Askew added, "Prompt diagnosis by family physicians and immediate medical care contribute to the lower death rate." He urged San Diegans to seek medical care promptly when they are ill.

Approximately one-third of all the reported cases of poliomyelitis continue to be in children from five to nine years of age. However, this year there has been an increase of about 4 per cent in the number of cases occurring among adults 20 years of age and older.

Dr. Askew declared that it was "impossible to predict what the situation will be in the months ahead. However, unless, some unforseen factors occur," he said, "it is expected that 1954 will not be a very heavy year for poliomyelitis." Both 1952 and 1953 were described as years in which "San Diego had more than the average number of cases, but so far 1954 approaches being an average year." The five year average 1949-53, of poliomyelitis in San Diego City and County among civilian residents is 195 cases per year.

frequently when the blood supply to the heart muscle is blocked by the formation of a clot in one of the coronary arteries which supply the heart muscle with blood. The blockage of the artery is known technically as 'coronary thrombosis,' while physicians use the term 'myocardial infarction' to describe the resultant damage or destruction of heart muscle tissue."

In this study of 1,031 patients who had suffered recent heart attacks and who had survived the first 24 hours in a hospital, a one-third drop in the death rate from heart attacks was achieved through anti-blood clotting drugs. There was an even greater drop in the complications to which patients suffering heart attacks was susceptible.

The Lions Roar

HAP VAN NICE

If MacBeth had been a dues paying Lion he would have known immediately what was up with the witches in the glen. Lion Roy Erwin reports that a Lioness Committee, especially picked for ability to decorate, has been holding some midnight meetings. Pointed ears report that the occasions are connected with the decorating of the American Legion Hall at 27th and B Streets for the Lions Annual Halloween Ball to be held the night of October 30th.

Erwin's shivering report to this writing sprite leads us to believe that Halloween Hall will be decked from strictly out of this world.

While this committee worries about interior decorations of the hall, Lion Henry Goldy's committee of Lions is concerned with the interiors of all and sundry present at the affair. Rumor has it that the main dish will be Goldy's GHOUL-ash washed down with a Witch's Brew.

THERE'S A 'DAZED' DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE

They call him "Dazed" George Brassington in Tacoma. Reason is the birth of Linda Jean, on August 29 to Jean and Dr. George Brassington at the Tacoma General Hospital.

The child weighed 8 pounds and 11 ounces at birth and the mother is recovering nicely.

Dr. Brassington is serving with the Armed Forces in Tacoma but will soon be released. The couple plans to return to Lemon Grove where they own a home. He will resume practice here also.

The next meeting of the Lemon Grove branch of the Red Cross will be held on Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse, according to Mrs. G. R. Roberts, chairman of this group.

"At this meeting we will consider the appointment of a new Fund and Membership Drive chairman for our 1955 annual event," said Mrs. Roberts, "and discuss any other pertinent matters as well as receive the regular officers' reports.

"We wish to assure all members of the Red Cross that they are welcome to attend these meetings and that while they are held primarily for the officers and the chairmen of the various committees, all members of the Red Cross are welcome, and this means anyone and everyone who has contributed as little as a dollar is a member, and welcome."

HELIX ASB CARDS TO BE DISTRIBUTED SOON

Shortly after school begins, ASB cards will be on sale to all Helix students. The sales will be handled during the campaign by a member of each first period class. However, cards may still be obtained after the campaign from the Helix Commissioner of Finance.

The card itself will cost $4.00. Before participating in any ASB functions, including sports and music activities, the student must have a card.

Anyone who cannot afford to buy an ASB card should contact the vice-principal or the ASB advisor and an opportunity will be provided for the student to earn one.

mately 30 more requests are pending and will be given consideration. Commenting on this, McDavid said: "It is noted that Bonelli arranged to 'take care' of a few friends before instituting an order to freeze new liquor licenses. I hope that the Attorney General will carefully scrutinize the 90 applicants, who will be given preference, and will render a report to the people. It will also be interesting to observe how soon these new licenses will be placed on the re-sale market."

We learn that another church is projected for Lemon Grove—this in a residence zone and a request for a zoning change is underway. Churches today are big business. The recently concluded World Council of Churches in Evanston, Ill., exemplifies this. We do not understand why any church should not conform to existing zoning ordinances and build within designated areas wherein provision is made for such structures. Already considerable opposition has developed so we suggest the church membership reconsider and build in the zones provided without disturbing residential areas.

From our scrapbook we glean from Tennyson, we believe—

I dreamed that stone by stone I reared a sacred fane—
A Temple—neither Pagoda,
Mosque nor Church,
But loftier, simpler, the door always open to Every breath from Heaven; and Truth, and Peace, and
Love, and Justice came and dwelt therein.
